future fund

14 August 2015

Future Fund's taxation position

The Future Fund was established by the Australian Government to invest for the benefit of future generations of Australians. It is explicitly exempt from paying income tax under Australian law because all its earnings are owned by the Australian Government. A Government does not tax itself.

In the last year the Future Fund made nearly $15 billion for the taxpayers of Australia.

ENDS Will Hetherton Head of Public Affairs +61 (0)3 8656 6400